

SERVANT'S HEART AWARDS

(ST. GEORGE, CAMDENTON)

Elizabeth Heser

Heser is involved in Episcopal Church Women, is an altar guild member and served as treasurer for the Daughters of the King for three years. She works at LAMB House twice a month and attaches coupons at Gerbes every month. She was a volunteer at Lake Regional Hospital for many years, helps at prayer chapel at convention and prepares food for shut-ins, funerals, those who are ill and after-music programs. She served as the St. George representative on the LAMB House board for 10 years. The person who nominated Elizabeth said, "She is always there when needed. She is grateful for what she has and believes in paying it forward to those who need it."

Mike McDonnell

McDonnell serves as chalice bearer and reader, is a Good Shepherd, a member of the Griffith Task Force and archivist/historian for both St. George and its Brotherhood of St. Andrew chapter. He is also the founder of the Brotherhood chapter at St. George, led the men's Bible study for five years and coordinates prayer requests. He was the renovation committee coordinator and silent auction co-chair at St. George and is its ERD representative and delegate to the convention. At the diocesan level, Mike is on the transition committee for the new bishop and is diocesan coordinator for the Brotherhood. In the community, he is a Red Cross instructor and volunteer on the disaster team. He also served as a hospice volunteer and is a member of the CERT Team.
